

The Moon Is Ours Tonight

The moon is ours tonight
There's no one else in sight
A golden beam forms a seam
Of wonder and delight

Big and fully round
Rising from the ground
Helping us to celebrate
The sweet love we've found

Solid now for years
Through good times and tears
Hand in hand together
Sharing life as dears

Finding over time
Hills are more a climb
Bodies getting creaky, but
Our love is in its prime

Tender, sweet and strong
Guiding us along
Making it completely clear
We're where we both belong

This moon is not to miss
It's bathing us in bliss
Just for us it smiles down
Witnessing our kiss
